

TELFORD INFANT SCHOOL

NEWSLETTER

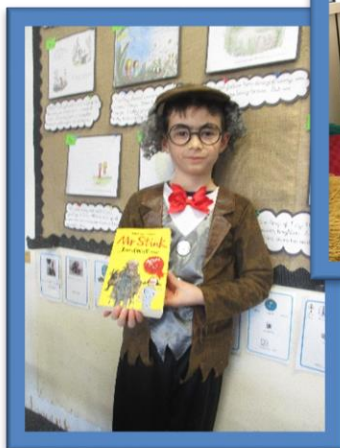

Dear Families and friends,
Welcome back, I hope you had a happy half term.

Yesterday was World Book Day and we were joined by children's author Loll Kirby who shared her love of books and inspired some amazing writing.

The children's and staffs costumes were amazing! Thank you so much for helping us get into the spirit of World Book Day. We had a very happy and memorable day.

Please look out for information about this half term's learning attached to today's correspondence.

Wishing you all a very happy weekend!

SUPPORTING CHILDREN'S CONCERNS

We are all deeply saddened by events in Ukraine. As a school we are not directly referencing this area of the news to the children but will respond sensitively to any queries or concerns they may raise.

Much of the support information available is aimed at older children but the document in the link below may be of use to you should your child have any queries or worries at home:

START OF THE SCHOOL DAY

A gentle reminder about the importance of your child arriving in school on time.

We do understand that occasionally there may be medical reasons, an unexpected traffic hold up or an issue at home that delays the start of your child's day but we are finding an increase in the number of families arriving after the start of the school day at 8.55am.

Classroom doors are open from 8.45am and learning starts promptly at 8.55am.

Thank you for your support.
